MISSOULA--

Eliodoro Rodoni, Butte, and Priscilla J. Phillips, Billings, recently were named Outstanding Graduate Students in French at the University of Montana in Missoula. Awards were also given to Christa Lehman, An Sied, West Germany, as Outstanding Senior in French, and to Kathleen M. Mahnke, Silver Gate, as Outstanding Junior in French at UM.

Rodoni, son of Mr. and Mrs. Elio Rodoni, Butte, is a 1970 graduate of Butte High School. He studied in Burgundy, France, in 1973 and in Switzerland in 1974. Rodoni received a bachelor of arts degree in French from UM in 1975 and is currently a teaching assistant and candidate for a master of arts degree in French from the University.

Phillips, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Perkins, Billings, is a 1970 graduate of Billings Senior High School. She also studied in Burgundy, France, before receiving a bachelor of arts degree in French in 1975 from UM. Phillips is studying for a master of arts degree in French at UM and is a teaching assistant.

Lehman, the Outstanding Senior in French, received the French Consul's Book Award for her accomplishments at the University.

Mahnke, who was named Outstanding Junior in French, is a 1970 graduate of Billings West High School. She studied under the a Program in Burgundy, France, last fall and plans to teach English and French when she graduates. Mahnke is daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Larson, Silver Gate.
